The Women's College is an inclusive community of scholars situated on the campus of the University of Sydney. Each year, 280 residents and 50 affiliate (non-resident) students come together as a community to live, socialise, and study together. Through membership of the College, students benefit from a strong network of friends whose collective energy and motivation ensures a dynamic and vibrant experience of university life.

Women's College offers

- Academic and wellbeing support
- Professional development and networking
- An extensive co-curricular program
- Secure, clean & comfortable environment

Scholarships are available at all levels of study for students of merit. Scholarships have a requirement of financial need and are reviewed annually based on satisfactory academic progress.
